Polnovakia Agrar, s.r.o.
Ružinovská 42, 821 01 Bratislava
www.polnovakia-agrar.sk

Manager for eastern Slovakia – focus on plant production

We are looking for skilled manager who will manage and coordinate our activities in east region of Slovakia – plant production (900 ha, 6 employees), pig production (finishers), feed production and biogas station (2 employees)
Main tasks:
- coordination of cooperation between sections
- determination, implementation and realization of common goals
- cooperation with Polnovakia Agrar production units in other regions of Slovakia
- planning and implementation of investments in cooperation with superior
- strengthening positive relations with surrounding municipalities

Who are you:

You are positive person, focused on teamwork and results
You are analytic thinking and possess good communication skills
You have ability to make short as well as long term plans and react flexibly to changes
You have the courage to take on new challenges
You have experience with professional plant production and management skills

We offer:

We offer an open, friendly, and interesting working environment.
Mainly Slovak and English are spoken within company
We offer competitive salary, accommodation and other interesting benefits.
Good opportunity for personal development and extended areas of responsibility
Internal as well as external education and training

Job start; as soon as possible.
Application including CV send by email to praca@proovo.sk
For further information www.polnovakia-agrar.sk or Jana Thebery +421 907 855 018